LESSONS FROM THE FIRST PERSECUTION

ACTS 4:1-22

1. The Apostles' arrest reveals a _____ _____ caused by the gospel. (v.1-6)

"Luke assures his readers immediately that the opposition of men did not hinder the Word of God. The Sadducees could arrest the apostles, but not the gospel." -- John Stott

- Since the gospel creates a power struggle, we must be prepared for _____ to it.

2. The Apostles' trial reveals their _____ in the power of the gospel. (v.7-12)

LUKE 12:11-12; ACTS 3:16; 2:21; PSALM 118:22-23

- Since the gospel has the power to save, we must be committed to its _____.

3. The Apostles' response reveals their _____ for the ministry of the gospel. (v.13-22)

- Since the gospel changes everything, we must be persistent in its _____.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

LESSONS FROM THE FIRST PERSECUTION

ACTS 4:1-22

1. The Apostles' arrest reveals a power struggle caused by the gospel. (v.1-6)

"Luke assures his readers immediately that the opposition of men did not hinder the Word of God. The Sadducees could arrest the apostles, but not the gospel." -- John Stott

- Since the gospel creates a power struggle, we must be prepared for opposition to it.

2. The Apostles' trial reveals their trust in the power of the gospel. (v.7-12)

LUKE 12:11-12; ACTS 3:16; 2:21; PSALM 118:22-23

- Since the gospel has the power to save, we must be committed to its message.

3. The Apostles' response reveals their endurance for the ministry of the gospel. (v.13-22)

- Since the gospel changes everything, we must be persistent in its ministry.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____