

BE WISE. BE GENEROUS.

LUKE 16:1-17

This is one of the more difficult parables to understand in the Gospel of Luke. But the overall theme here is simple to apply.

- In light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we need an _____ on how we handle and _____ our resources.

Jesus isn't asking us to think about 70 years into the future. He's asking us to think about 70 million years into the future!

- Christians should be _____ with their resources.
- Christians should be _____ with their resources.
- Christians should _____ God, not money.

The Parable Of The Dishonest Manager

- God is the good _____ and _____ of all things.

PSALM 50:10-12; JAMES 1:16-18

- We must be _____ with how we handle the resources God entrusts to us. (v.1-9)

What do I have that can be used for eternal purposes? How am I planning to be used by God right now?

- We must be _____ with the resources God entrusts to us. (v.10-13)

How can I be more faithful today with the resources God has entrusted to me?

- We must be _____ to God with the resources God entrusts to us. (v.14-18)

In what areas of my life am I not being obedient to God with the resources God has entrusted to me?

- Our disobedience to God in the way we leverage our resources for His glory and the good of others reveals a _____ in us. It reminds us that we love the things of this world too much.

→ WITH OUR RESOURCES WE CAN SAY TO THE WORLD, "WE CARE FOR YOU, AND SO DOES OUR GOD!"

BE WISE. BE GENEROUS.

LUKE 16:1-17

This is one of the more difficult parables to understand in the Gospel of Luke. But the overall theme here is simple to apply.

- In light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, we need an eternal perspective on how we handle and steward our resources.

Jesus isn't asking us to think about 70 years into the future. He's asking us to think about 70 million years into the future!

- Christians should be wise with their resources.
- Christians should be generous with their resources.
- Christians should worship God, not money.

The Parable Of The Dishonest Manager

- God is the good owner and provider of all things.

PSALM 50:10-12; JAMES 1:16-18

- We must be careful planners with how we handle the resources God entrusts to us. (v.1-9)

What do I have that can be used for eternal purposes? How am I planning to be used by God right now?

- We must be faithful with the resources God entrusts to us. (v.10-13)

How can I be more faithful today with the resources God has entrusted to me?

- We must be obedient to God with the resources God entrusts to us. (v.14-18)

In what areas of my life am I not being obedient to God with the resources God has entrusted to me?

- Our disobedience to God in the way we leverage our resources for His glory and the good of others reveals a heart issue in us. It reminds us that we love the things of this world too much.

→ WITH OUR RESOURCES WE CAN SAY TO THE WORLD, "WE CARE FOR YOU, AND SO DOES OUR GOD!"
