

“WAITING & EXPECTING”

ACTS 1:12-26

A Word About Judas (v.16-21)

Jesus did not make a mistake with Judas. As mysterious as it may seem, Judas, his denial & destruction, were a fulfillment of the plans and purposes of God.

What did the Disciples do as they waited?

Do not confuse ‘waiting’ with inaction. While they waited, they were faithful to do what they knew to do. What are you doing as you wait?

- They devoted themselves to simple, _____ . (v.12)

ACTS 1:4-5

- They committed themselves to _____ with one another. (v.14)

PHILIPPIANS 2:1-2

- They were constant in _____. (v.14)

- They studied _____. (v.15-16)

LUKE 24:27

- They were obedient to God’s _____ and trusted God’s _____. (v.20-26)

2 thoughts on the replacement of Judas with Matthias:

1. Appointing the 12 apostles was a unique situation and a choice that was made by God. The New Testament gives us all the guidelines we need for the selecting of leaders to serve the Church. The casting of lots is not required! :)
2. Since Jesus is on the throne and is the true head of the Church every other leader is replaceable. Jesus can be trusted to ultimately lead and shepherd His bride, the Church!

→ May God find us faithful in our waiting!

“WAITING & EXPECTING”

ACTS 1:12-26

A Word About Judas (v.16-21)

Jesus did not make a mistake with Judas. As mysterious as it may seem, Judas, his denial & destruction, were a fulfillment of the plans and purposes of God.

What did the Disciples do as they waited?

Do not confuse ‘waiting’ with inaction. While they waited, they were faithful to do what they knew to do. What are you doing as you wait?

- They devoted themselves to simple, practical obedience. (v.12)

ACTS 1:4-5

- They committed themselves to fellowship with one another. (v.14)

PHILIPPIANS 2:1-2

- They were constant in prayer. (v.14)

- They studied God’s Word. (v.15-16)

LUKE 24:27

- They were obedient to God’s Word and trusted God’s sovereignty. (v.20-26)

2 thoughts on the replacement of Judas with Matthias:

- 3. Appointing the 12 apostles was a unique situation and a choice that was made by God. The New Testament gives us all the guidelines we need for the selecting of leaders to serve the Church. The casting of lots is not required! :)*
- 4. Since Jesus is on the throne and is the true head of the Church every other leader is replaceable. Jesus can be trusted to ultimately lead and shepherd His bride, the Church!*

→ May God find us faithful in our waiting!