THE SPIRIT & THE SABBATH

EXODUS 31:1-18

→ The Spirit empowers God's people, and the Sabbath reminds and refreshes God's people.

The Spirit EMPOWERS God's People (31:1-11)

- God's Spirit is given to Bezalel so that God's people can obey His commands.
- To be "filled with the Spirit" means to be set apart with a God-given ability to do or say exactly what God wants done or said.
 - The pinnacle of this comes in Jesus, who is making His people into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

Isaiah 11:1-2; Ephesians 2:19-22; 1 Peter 2:4-5

- As Christians, we have a better empowerment because the Holy Spirit indwells us.
- In the New Covenant, the Spirit is not reserved for specific roles but is given to every Christian to empower them to obey God's command and commission.

Ezekiel 36:25-27; John 20:21-23

The Sabbath REMINDS & REFRESHES God's People (31:12-18)

- Sabbath is meant to remind us of who God is.
- Sabbath is meant to refresh us by giving us rest from our work.
- Our ultimate Sabbath rest is found through the work of Jesus and our regular Sabbath-keeping points us toward that rest.

Hebrews 4:8-10
