

CALLING DISCIPLES, BREAKING NETS & CATCHING MEN

LUKE 5:1-11

What does this passage teach us about Jesus?

- Jesus has all _____.

Last week we saw that Jesus has authority over demons and disease. This week we see He has authority over all of creation. He is Lord of the fish and the fishermen! Jesus, the carpenter, knows more about fish than the fishermen do because He is no ordinary carpenter! He is the Lord of all creation!

- Jesus calls _____ to join Him in _____.

MATTHEW 11:28-30

What does this passage teach me about Peter (and consequently, me)?

- Peter was _____ before he was _____.

Your doubts about believing and following Jesus are a very small barrier for Jesus to overcome. He's big enough to handle your questions.

JUDE 20-25

- Peter's _____ leads to an _____... But this story isn't about the fish!
- Peter's _____ to the Lord's blessing is _____. A confession that he is a _____ and that Jesus is _____.
- Invited into the work of "catching men"... Peter and the others, after seeing and _____ the work of Jesus, left _____ behind to know and follow Him.

A Gracious Reminder Of Jesus

JOHN 21:1-13

MATTHEW 11:28-30

What does this passage teach me about Peter (and consequently, me)?

- Peter was doubtful before he was obedient.

Your doubts about believing and following Jesus are a very small barrier for Jesus to overcome. He's big enough to handle your questions.

JUDE 20-25

- Peter's obedience leads to an abundant blessing... But this story isn't about the fish!
- Peter's right response to the Lord's blessing is humility. A confession that he is a sinful man and that Jesus is Lord.
- Invited into the work of "catching men"... Peter and the others, after seeing and experiencing the work of Jesus, left everything behind to know and follow Him.
